NSC BRIEFING

7 December 1954

OFFSHORE ISLANDS

- I. Island situation very quiet past 10 days--broken only by sporadic shelling of Ichiang (in north) and Quemoyoys.
- A. Communists may have been waiting for clarification of US intentions or amplifying US comment on Taipei pact.
- B. Communists' 1954 operations have been marked by such alternating lulls and sudden increases in pressure.
- C. Heavy shelling and bombing may be renewed any time, in continuation harassment program.
- II. Communist air capabilities against islands may have been augmented recently.

IV. As regards Chinese Communist naval capability, CINCPAC believes that:

- A. Commie submarines are probably not now operating outside Yellow Sea but that
- B. State of training of crews is sufficiently advanced to permit offensive operations should Chinese Communists so decide.
